Vision Adjusts Gradually After Cataract Removal

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—How soon after a successful cataract removal is sight restored to the eye?

A—It is customary to keep the eye bandaged for about 10 days after such an operation. When the bandage is removed, vision is restored but may be distorted due to the loss of the lens. In some persons, this can be corrected by wearing a contact lens in addition to the glasses previously worn. In those who are unable to wear a contact lens, there is a gradual readjustment of binocular vision with a change in the prescribed glasses.

Q—Is it possible successfully to remove a cataract from an eye that has already had a detached retina?

A—Yes. The retina and the lens are completely separate structures.

Q—Is it possible to remove a cataract by freezing instead of cutting?

A—It is possible by freezing instead of squeezing. The use of a sub-freezing extractor has several advantages over the older method but it does not eliminate the necessity of cutting through the hard outer capsule of the eyeball.

Q—Every time I take two or three aspirins for a cold, dark red blotches appear on my arms. What can I do for this?

A—In persons who are hypersensitive to aspirin, such a rash is common. This is a mild form of aspirin poison-

Spain Bases Not Involved With French

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon says its decision to base jet fighter squadrons in Spain is not the result of France ordering all foreign military forces and bases from its territory.

A Pentagon spokesman said Thursday there are no U.S. air squadrons in France. He said the decision to base three squadrons of Air Force F100 jet fighters at the Torrejon Air Base was made to lessen the strain on the U.S. Tactical Air Command.

The command has been rotating three squadrons of jets from the United States to Italy and Turkey. The Spanish base will permit Italy and Turkey to be served by U.S. Air Force units in Europe.

About 800 Air Force men from the United States will be transferred to the Spanish base outside Madrid by the end of this month. Torrejon is one of three air bases used by the United States in Spain. The others are at Moron in southern Spain and Zaragoza in eastern Spain.

Torrejon also is the base for KC135 jet tankers used to refuel B52 bombers. Spain now bars aerial refueling over its territory after a KC135 and a B52 col-lided last January. Four hydro-gen bombs were lost, including one that was not recovered until last week in the Mediterranean sea. The others were found on Spanish territory shortly after the crash.

ing rather than a true allergy. Most persons who take aspirin for minor complaints take two or three when they would get a better result with less danger of poisoning if they took only one tablet and repeated the dose not oftener than every four hours. Of course, much larger doses are needed in the treatment of arthritis or rheumatic fever. If you use the smaller dose, however, and still get a rash, you should switch to another drug.

Q—Will aspirin cause an increase in blood pressure?

A—No, and it will not lower it either.

Q—Is there any danger in taking buffered aspirin and Darvon together three times a day for years? They relieve the backache and discomfort I have with a prolapsed uterus. My doctor says an operation is the only way to correct it but he will not do this because of my age. I am 80.

A—These two drugs can be taken together but it is unusual for anyone to need both. Age alone is no longer a valid reason to refuse surgery, thanks to antibiotics, improved surgical technique and modern pre- and post-operative care.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Boston Again Bans Busing of Students

By HOLCOMB B. NOBLE

BOSTON (AP) —The Boston School Committee has again voted to ban busing as a way to end racial imbalance in public schools, and the action cost the city $16 million in state education funds.

The funds were cut off as of today by the Massachusetts Board of Education on recommendation of Education Commissioner Owen B. Kiernan.

"Commissioner Kiernan is using dictator tactics to force the Boston School Committee to betray the trust of thousands of voters who elected them on the chief issue that there would be no busing of their children," William E. O'Connor, school committee member, said before the 5-0 vote was taken Thursday night.

The three-year-old dispute involves the quality of schools in the predominantly Negro Roxbury section. It has led to two one-day school boycotts and a civil rights protest march of some 10,000 persons.

Louise Day Hicks, former school committee chairman, who is still a committee member, said today there can be no suitable plan to ending racial imbalance in the schools.

"It can't be done," she said. "Mr. Lee's scatteration plan is the only hope."

Service to the community

A colleague of ours tells this one. On Saturdays he sells dimes (10c each). Seems the neighborhood movie is next door. The kids stop in before the show for dimes—for the vending machines in the theatre. A lot of our business is like this—service to the community. Glad to do it. Because we're conveniently located and open long hours, we're a handy place to pick up change or a bottle of aspirin. But a pharmacist's true service to his community is to be a quick, reliable source of the drugs and medications your physician prescribes. That's the real reason we're here. And we are always pleased to serve you.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "It's a nice job," Joe Pasternak observed ruefully, "for making enemies."

It seemed an unlikely statement from Pasternak, the friendly, Hungarian-born producer who has made sunny musicals with well-fell songstresses from Deanna Durbin ("Three Smart Girls") to Ann-Margret ("Made in Paris"). He was referring to his extra-curricular post as producer of the Academy Award telecast.

"I was out of my mind to accept the job last year," he said. "Then I agreed to do it again this year. What was I thinking of?"

After his exercise in Hollywood hyperbole, he admitted that the assignment was a challenging and sometimes satisfying one. Especially if the show comes off well, as it did last year.

"I think Monday night's show will be just as good," said the producer. "We'll have a few surprises, but there's not much you can do that is different. Any major change in the presentation requires a vote of the board of directors, so we're stuck with the same format."

"Within that framework, I think the Oscarcast is a good show. The main thing we try to do is present an entertaining program while preserving the dignity of the organization. Bob Hope is great for that purpose."

Hope will again be conducting the festivities next Monday at the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium, and he will be joined by 40 other top names. Included are all of last year's acting winners: Julie Andrews, Rex Harrison, Lila Kedrova and Peter Ustinov.

Casting singers for the nominated songs is the area where the producer fears that he creates enemies. He turned down one big name because the singer had been featured on recent Oscarcasts. Another top recording artist was rejected because he would appear only if he sang all five songs.

"Everyone wants to sing the song that is the favorite to win," Pasternak remarked. "This year it seems to be 'The Shadow of Your Smile.'"

He handed the assignment to Barbara McNair, who has a way with a ballad. Robert Goulet sings "The Sweetheart Tree" — "because it calls for a romantic voice."

Thailand Drops Birth Control

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — The government of Thailand decided today not to adopt a birth control program for the country.

"Thailand is still a wide country," said a spokesman after a Cabinet meeting.

He said Thailand, a country the size of Spain, has a population of about 30 million, and the government believes 60 million wouldn't be too many.

TORTICOLLIS — By Dr. Charles Johnson

Torticollis or wryneck is a condition in which there is a tonic spasm of the muscles of the neck which rotate and flex the head and neck, may affect the sternocleidomastoid muscle, the trapezius, or other muscles of the neck and shoulders individually or collectively. Cases of torticollis are due to cervical subluxations producing pressure upon delicate nerve tissue. The points of nerve pressure are readily detected by proper nerve test and examination. HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

My Readers Answer The Mail
Dear Helen: I am so mad at Lee, A Bachelor (and I thank heaven for women who have more sense than to marry him!) that I must tell you my experience with a fussy man and a "chipped" car door.

My physically handicapped child had gone shopping with me and I parked as near the entrance of the supermarket as possible. She was dying and we knew I had to open the car door wide for her to get out, and she needed my support. Her handicap was obvious.

The man parked next to us made a point of walking back and examining how my door was resting on his chrome. Observing the struggle our child had getting out of the car, he said something nasty about my not being careful, and women like me are what ruin cars. My daughter started crying, "I never should have come with you. That was the last time she ever went shopping."

It won't help my daughter and certainly not me, but I will resent until the day I die, the man and his healthy son who could run to him when he called, "Come on." — Aileen.

Dear Aileen: Don't waste precious moments on bitterness. This man has to live with himself — and that's punishment enough! — H.

Dear Helen: In reply to "Patrol and Friend," this person should find a large bucket, push his head in three times and pull it up twice.

You reasons for not publishing thenames of fellows in Vietnam are most sound. I am sure that "P and F" would be the first to send over propaganda to our men who have enough problems as it is. These pamphlets from so-called peace movements can be very harmful to already low morale, or even lower a high morale (and is ever really high when you're fighting a deadly war?) These organizations are nothing more than fronts for Communist who dope stupid people. I know! At one time before I learned better, I belonged to some of them. Then

I found out what they're really all about. I suggest "Patrol" take time off from picketing and burning his draft card to see what he's doing to our country. He's not "Patrol and Friend"! — American Man In Uniform and Darn Proud of It.

Dear Helen: You chose the dumbest letter possible to prove your point. I wrote a good letter about how I didn't want any more war and so I was a peace marcher so that we could end all this senseless killing, but you wouldn't print it. — Teen.

Dear Teen: It was a good letter, honey — filled with high ideals about why we should live in peace. ...but you didn't say HOW.

No one in America or the Free World wants senseless killing. But if we don't contain it where it breaks out, that killing may spread until even the peace marchers wake up and realize it's too late. — H.

Dear Helen: I remember how frightened I was on my eighteenth birthday and I was not alone. I was a World War II teen. None of us wanted to go, but we had a job to do.

I sit her and look at my fine, wonderful children and I know it was a must. Now I see my oldest son, 18, and I know he is as frightened — and I'm frightened for him. But we know it is a must. The only sad part is that our boys must protect the freedom of things like "Patriot and Friend." God help us —and him!

Helen, next time, answer fools like this with both barrels. When he said, "Madam, you should be silenced!" you should have come back with a hot volley. — Dick

Dear Dick: Icy contempt does just as well. And thanks for your fine letter. — H.

This column is dedicated to ing kid trouble or just plain family living, so if you're having trouble, let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of Hope Star.

Telephone Attached to His Daughter's Ear So Much That He Fears Surgery Is Needed

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—"Him? I didn't think you even knew he existed, Ellen."
"Really, Jason. I don't think you even know what love means."
These are a couple of remarks I heard my daughter, Tracy Ann, make recently over the telephone, an instrument which has become so firmly attached to her ear that I am thinking of having it removed by surgical means.

I am not a parent who believes in eavesdropping but kids today bellow their secrets into a phone so loud you can hear them all over the house.
What do 12-year-old kids talk about? Well, believe it or not, they talk about each other.
Does Judy like Roger? What does Susie see in Spencer? And how about Dick and Christine?
The other night, with both a radio and television set turned on, my daughter sat and talked over the phone with a chum about the antics of a seventh-grade Romeo for exactly an hour and 15 minutes. Finally, I went into her room and broke up the conversation.
"What on earth are you doing?" I demanded.
Tracy Ann pointed at an American history book open on her lap.
"Studying the Monroe Doctrine," she replied.

"While listening to the radio, watching television, and talking on the phone?"
"Yup."

I noticed six boys' names written on her small blackboard, and asked who they were.
"My boy friends."

"Only six?" I inquired with heavy sarcasm.
"Oh, I've got lots more," she said airily. "But those are the ones I like best—now."

I went out and grumbled to my wife.
"Oh, dry up, Rover," said Frances. "Let her alone. She's still in the puppy love stage."

Puppy love? Oh, no. No, indeed. Whatever this jabberwocky over the telephone between small fry amounts to, it isn't puppy love.

No! Real puppy love, anyway. Real puppy love isn't noisy and carefree and gossipy. Real puppy love is solitary, silent, soulful suffering—the spirit laid bare and shuddering and helpless to cure its own agony.

I remembered then my own case of puppy love in the seventh grade. I wrote not six names on a blackboard, but one in my heart.

She was a girl half a head taller than I, and I sold newspapers on the streets for days to save up enough to buy her a box of Valentine candy, and she promptly gave a piece to the tallest boy in the class.

This boy was my best friend and I sat in the row between him and her, and I had to pass back and forth the notes they wrote each other and I never read a line. I have had to do some bitter chores in my life since then, but none that ever degraded me more or left me more forlorn.

Well, he grew up and died, and she grew up and married, and I grew up and moved away. And I never really told her that I loved her, and I never will.

All this happened back in 1918, and so far as I know puppy love has been going downhill ever since. They don't have men in the seventh grade anymore who can stand up to its torture.

Six names on a blackboard—Ha! Child's play. But I guess it's better that way.

Few Champs in Tourney Act Like One

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer
LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — It's called the Tournament of Champions, but to be honest, very few played like one.

That was the picture today as the 26 professional golfers in the Las Vegas springtime classic fired away in the second round of the $100,000 tournament.

In the first round Thursday, only four players broke par 72 at the Desert Inn Country Club.

Eighteen did it in the same round a year ago. And for the first time in the 14-year history of the event, no one penetrated the 60s.

Bill Casper Jr. and Gay Brewer were the coleaders teeing off today with first-round 70s and one shot back were PGA champion Dave Marr and Dudley Wysong.

Bruce Crampton of Australia was the lone man even with par and fans had to look further down the list for the other stars in golf.

Doug Sanders and ex-PGA champion Bobby Nichols were tied at 73, and Arnold Palmer was in a group of seven deadlocked at 74.

Masters king Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player were in the 76s, and Tony Lema reposed at 77.

Porker Golfers Cling to Lead

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Arkansas held its narrow lead in the Southwest Conference golf race Thursday by tying Texas Tech 3-3.

Mike McCutcheon of Arkansas was medalist with a 73, one over par. He also beat Robert McKinney of Tech 1-up.

Arkansas' Hal Sharber beat Joe Huber 4 and 2, Tech's Steve LeCrone beat David McCauley 2-up and Jerry Hrncliar of Tech beat Mike Hastings 5 and 4 in other singles matches.

In doubles, LeCrone and Hrncliar beat McCauley and Hastings 4 and 3 and McCutcheon and Sharber downed McKinney and Huber 3 and 2.

Says Braves Would Get Big Welcome

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — The National League Braves faced the possibility today of being the only major league baseball team in history to be welcomed in two cities in the same season.

"If the Braves return to Milwaukee they will be mobbed," said Willard Stafford, the attorney who had led Wisconsin's forces in successful prosecution of the state's antitrust suit against baseball.

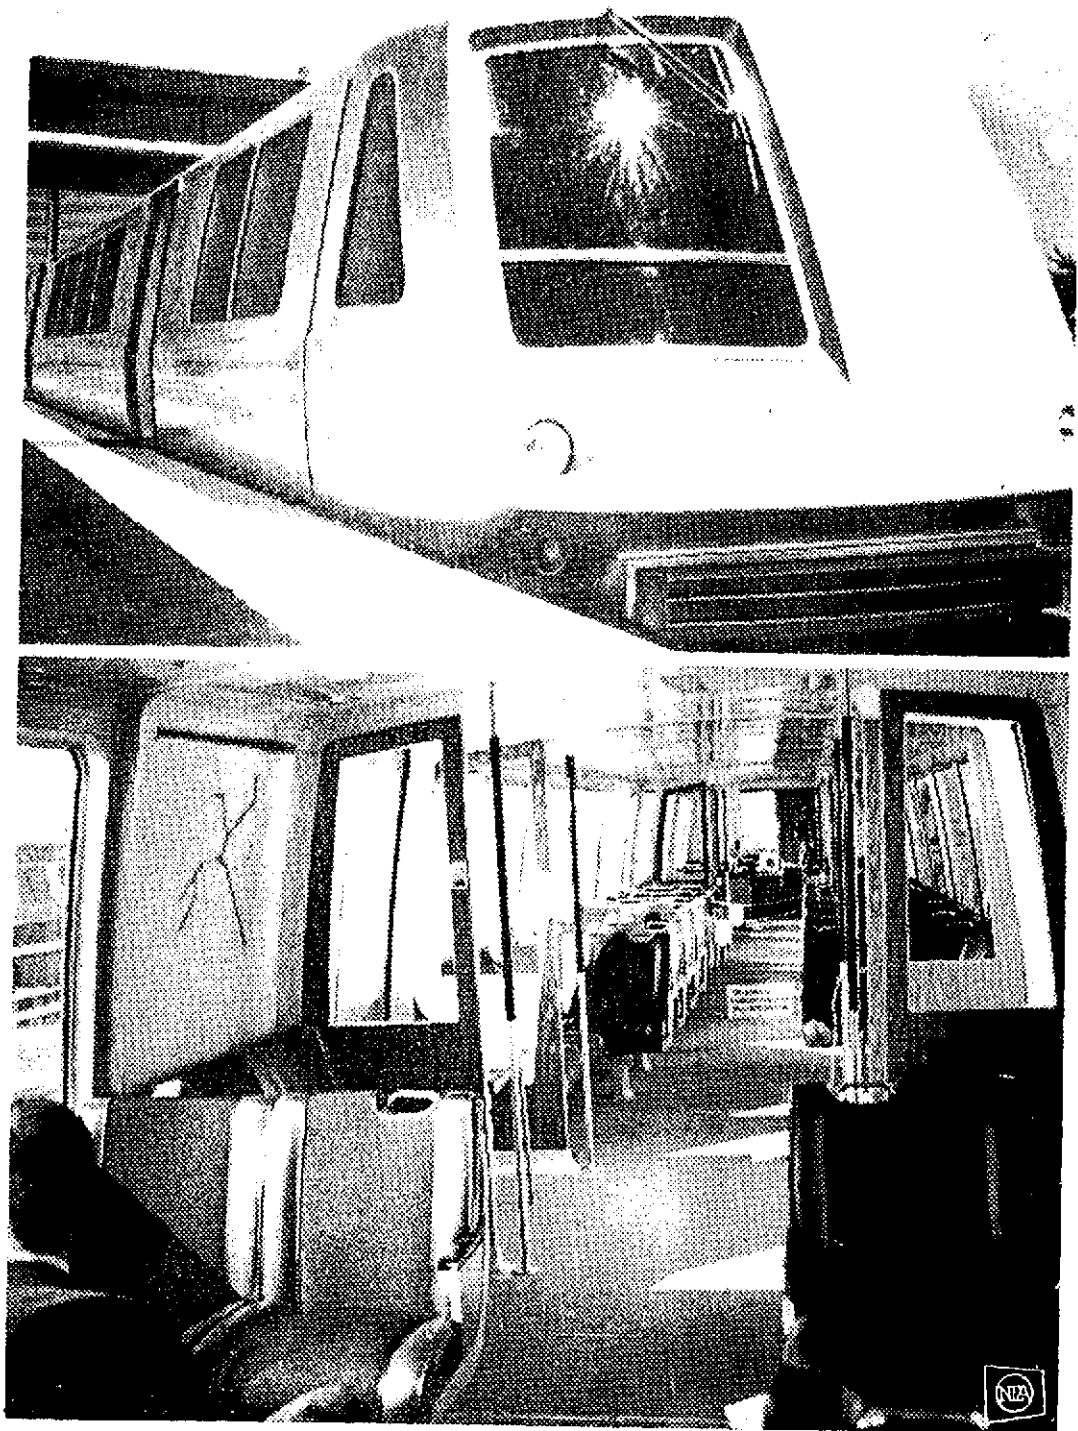

"I don't mean it will be an angry mob," the silver-haired lawyer said. "It would be more of a second honeymoon."

Stafford said, "I think this trial has purged the ill feeling of the average man — and one thing is sure — we can do better than 10,000 attendance on the second night."

The remark referred to the 12,721 fans the Braves drew at their second game in Atlanta Wednesday night.

Decisive Battle

Poltava is listed among the 15 decisive battles of the world. It was here that the army of Peter the Great of Russia defeated the forces of Sweden. Poltava was followed by the decline of Swedish power and the growth of Russian influence in European civilization.

ALMOST READY TO GO—Despite difficulties with finances, the new San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transportation District is making rapid progress toward beginning operations. Full-scale model, top, of streamlined cars shows detachable forward pod with space for train attendant and automatic control equipment. Normally, trains will be operated automatically from a central computer, but attendant will be able to take over controls in any emergency. Car interior is shown at bottom.

HE GETS THE POINT—It's not an antique doll but a medical exhibit that Dolly Ah-naw is holding. The papier mache figure from Japan, part of a London display of items used in traditional Chinese medicine practiced in much of the Orient, pinpoints proper location of needles used in acupuncture. An ancient practice, acupuncture calls for inserting needles into the body at precise points to cure ailments.

Women's National Swim Meet

BARTLESVILLE, Okla. (AP) — Seven defending champions headed an impressive field as the Senior Women's National AAU Swimming Championships got under way today with a prediction from meet director Ken Treadway of record-setting performances in all 15 events.

Three of the defending champs — Patty Caretto, Cathy Ferguson and Cynthia Goyette — each won two titles last year. Miss Caretto, 15-year-old swimmer for the City of Commerce, Calif., Swim Club is defending in the 500-yard and 1,650-yard freestyle races. Miss Ferguson, 17, of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, won the 100- and 200-yard backstroke, and Miss Goyette, 19-year-old representative of Detroit's Motor City Swim Club is defending champion in the 100- and 200-yard breaststroke.

Other defending champions are Sue Pitt, 17, East Brunswick, N.J. Scarlet Jets, 200 yard butterfly. Penny Estes, 16, Miami Springs, Fla., Recreation Club, 200 yard freestyle; Sharor Stouder, 17, City of Commerce

100-yard butterfly, and Sharor Stouder, 20, Santa Clara, Calif., Swim Club, 400-yard individual medley.

Baseball's Players Name Union Chief

NEW YORK (AP) — Marvin Miller, the assistant to the president of the United Steel Workers since 1960, has been elected executive director of the Major League Baseball Players' Association by an overwhelming vote of 489-136.

The players of the majors backed up the selection of Miller for the $50,000-a-year job by a 3 1/2 to 1 margin. Miller had been named by the directors of the association, March 5, subject to ratification by a majority of the players. The official vote was announced today.

Miller, 48, visited each of the 20 big league ball clubs during the training season. He will begin his new assignment July 1. The permanent office of the association will continue to be located in New York.

A careerist, 17 years old when he joined the union, Miller

Kentucky Derby Only 3 Weeks Off

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

With the 92nd running of the Kentucky Derby only three weeks away, a number of high ranking 3-year-olds will attempt to put their best foot forward Saturday with the hopes of qualifying for America's glamor horse race on May 7 at Churchill Downs.

Most of them will be in action in the one mile of the $50,000. Others, notably Moccasin, will be seen at Keeneland where the $25,000-added Ashland for 3-year-old fillies headlines the card.

The Gotham, which will be followed by the 1 mile of the Wood Memorial April 23, is expected to attract at least a dozen, including three two-horse entries.

Trainer Max Hirsch will send out Mrs. Edward Lasker's Indulto, unbeaten in two starts this year, and the King Ranch's swift Buffle. Trainer Eddie Nelson will tighten the saddle girth on two speedsters — Ogden Phipps' Impressive and the Wheatley Stable's Stupendous. And Hirsch Jacobs will bid with two carrying the silks of his wife — Exhibitionist and Understanding. A well regarded outsider will be Sub Call, an invader from New England.

Conditions of the race put 122 pounds on Exhibitionist, 118 on Impressive and 114 on the other leaders. With 12 starters the winner will earn $38,305 of a total purse of $59,700.

Claiborne Farm's Moccasin, Horse of the Year and 2-year-old filly champion in 1965 when she was unbeaten in eight races, will seek to atone for her only setback. She goes in the six furlongs of the Ashland against the three who finished ahead of her last Saturday — Stealaway, Justakiss and Dutch Maid. Moccasin is being prepped for either the Derby on May 7 or the Kentucky Oaks on the preceding day.

The appearance of Cabildo, a son of Round Table-Delta, also will be watched with interest since it'll be the first appearance for the colt since he was Brown for $175,000 in February. Trainer Alcee Richard will send the high priced 3-year-old out in a seven-furlong dash and then plans to put him against Derby favorite Graustarc in the Blue Grass Stakes April 28.

Kenya Loser Has Quit His Post

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — Oginga Odinga, who lost the No. 2 spot in President Jomo Kenyatta's ruling Kenya African National Union last month, resigned today as vice president of Kenya.

The Communist-leaning Odinga charged the country was being ruled by an "invisible government" representing "commercial interests, largely foreign, whose primary concern is for big profits for their shareholders."

Make Wheat That Orient Will Eat

Rice-like Wheat bit
By JERRY BUCK
NEW YORK (AP) — A new process which developers say could make wheat palatable to Asia's rice-eating millions — and thus be a partial answer to famine — will be tested in a pilot project beginning this week in Hong Kong.
Wheat kernels are peeled by a lye process that makes them look like rice and cook like rice. The purpose of the project is to see whether Asians decide that it tastes like rice.
One of the biggest roadblocks to easing world famine, experts say, is that some people would rather die than change their eating habits.
Millions of the rice-eating people in India's Kerala State live on the verge of starvation rather than eat the wheat flowing into their country. Rioting mobs shouted at police: "Give us rice or shoot us!"
Breaking down "food prejudices" is necessary so that people can be fed the food that is available, says Melvin B. Myers, director of the material resources program of the Church World Service, sponsors of the pilot project.

Many millions of other Asians besides the Keralites are rice eaters and have been reluctant to sue wheat he said in an interview today.
"At one time the children of Hong Kong and Japan couldn't stand milk. They didn't know what it was," said Myers. "Now they drink it all the time."
"Suppose the United States was suddenly faced with a famine. Do you think the people would eat grubs or ants or drink blood before they would starve? Yet, these are the staples of some people."
On her recent visit to the United States Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi said: "People facing famine can still make it a principle not to eat wheat when they are used to eating rice."
The United States is sending 3.5 million tons of wheat to India to combat the drought-caused famine there.
To make wheat more acceptable to the rice-eating Keralites, the U.S. Department of Agriculture has come up with the new process to make a rice-like grain from regular wheat, called "World Wheat."
They Wonder How to Answer Letter
WASHINGTON (AP) — The start of Sen. Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah, is wondering how to answer the letter of a 12-year-old boy from Provo, Utah, where an obscenity ordinance is being challenged in court.
The boy's query: "Would you please send me some pornography so I can see what everyone is talking about?"

Diversion Try Charged to Van Dalsem

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - State Rep. Paul Van Dalsem is trying to divert attention from "the flagrant abuse of influence over the state Highway Commission which yielded him virtually a private road in Perry County," Republican Winthrop Rockefeller said Wednesday.

It was Round 3 in the Van Dalsem - GOP bout over state highway expenditures.

The battle began when the Republican newspaper, the Arkansas Outlook, said Tuesday that state highway tax revenues had been abused through construction of a $154,000 bridge on Arkansas 155 near Van Dalsem's property. The GOP said that the county road paralleling the eastern boundary of some 400 acres owned by Van Dalsem was taken into the state highway system as part of Arkansas 155 after Van Dalsem cleared his land.

Van Dalsem said the road serves 3,000 acres, and eventually will be an access road to a large recreational area to be developed by the South Fouché Watershed Association, of which Van Dalsem is president.

Van Dalsem countered Wednesday by saying the GOP is not free from involvement in public projects that benefit private individuals, in particular Rockefeller.

He said if the Republicans were really interested in the matter they should investigate construction of an airport on Petit Jean Mountain. About $200,000 in federal funds was spent on the airport which Rockefeller uses 95 per cent of the time, he said.

Rockefeller said Van Dalsem's reference to the airstrip owned by the Petit Jean State Park was "so irrelevant that I see no need to comment on it, but should anyone be interested, all the details are a matter of public record." Rockefeller said of the facility.

Van Dalsem also mentioned the paving of a loop road that runs by Rockefeller's Winrock Farm on Petit Jean.

Rockefeller said he paid $44,446 of the total cost for paving the county road, federal matching funds amounted to $41,918 and Conway County paid $750.

"The state of Arkansas did not spend one nickel," he said. "There is no comparison."

Rockefeller said, "between his road (Van Dalsem) road and the road atop Petit Jean Mountain."

Rockefeller said the Petit Jean road serves at least 150,000 tourists a year, as well as local residents.

The GOP candidate for governor was in Kingsville, Tex., Wednesday for a board meeting of Santa Gertrudis International. Rockefeller made his statement through his Little Rock office.

James Watt was the inventor, not the inventor of the steam engine.

One of the penalties for being an expert is that you frequently and yourself in an interior contract because your partner goes out or his way to become dummy.

North would normally have bid six no-trump but his partner was the late Sidney Snider and North wanted to let Sidney handle as many dummies as possible.

Six no-trump would have been a cinch. Against any lead but a spade, North would have knocked out the ace of clubs and made 12 top tricks. Against a spade lead North would have had to finesse. The finesse would work and North would make a grand slam.

West opened the ace of clubs and shifted to a heart. Sidney won in dummy and led the nine of spades for a finesse. When it held, things looked fine. He continued with the eight of spades. That held also and West showed out.

This left East with king and one trump and Sidney didn't have any more trumps to lead through him. A little thing like that never disturbed Sidney. He proceeded to make the hand by means of a coup.

His next play was a low club which he ruffed. Then he entered dummy with the queen of hearts and ruffed a high club. This left Sidney with only two trumps.

He went to dummy once more by overtaking his queen of diamonds and proceeded to run off high cards from dummy. East could trump any time he wished but Sidney was ready to overtrump any time. Actually East held out until the bitter end but since Sidney had reduced to the same number of trumps as East, he was able to hold out with him.

Monbo Twirls Detroit Past the Yankees

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Monbouquette has won 97 games in the American League but none was more important than his first start for the Detroit Tigers.

Monbo, a 10-18 pitcher for Boston last year, came through with a fine six-hitter Thursday against the New York Yankees in the second game of a double-header for a 5-2 victory. The Tigers also took the opener 3-2 and went to Detroit to open the home season with a perfect 3-0 record.

"I've got a lot to prove," said the 29-year-old pitcher from Medford, Mass., "especially after being traded. I have to show I can come back after a 10-18 year. I know I'm a better pitcher than that."

"This game meant a lot to me. I've thought a lot about it ever since I got here. Like I said, I've got a lot to prove."

Charley Dressen, the Tiger manager who stole Monbo from the Red Sox in a deal, is delighted with his latest acquisition.

"With Monbo to take a regular turn along with the kids (Denny McLain, Mickey Lolich and Joe Sparrna) everything ought to turn out all right. Eventually, I expect Dave Wickersham will be a good relief pitcher but I have to start him now because Sparrna hurt his finger down South and isn't ready."

We tried to get Monbo last June but they wouldn't give him up. We finally made the deal a few days before the end of the season but it wasn't official until later when they made their pick from the players we offered."

Top Drivers in Grand Prix at Stuttgart

STUTTGART, Ark. (AP) — Over 100 top amateur sports car drivers from around the nation (and one from Mexico) will compete in the 8th annual Grand Prairie Grand Prix here this weekend.

Among the top pilots is Joe Starkey, 23, of Dallas, the national champion of the Sports Car Club of America.

Starkey will be driving a C Modified Elva-McClaren with a reworked 450 horsepower Chevrolet engine.

Leavell Smith, race chairman, said Starkey told him he was planning to enter the race. Starkey, in this season's racing, has already won two first overall places—at the Polar Prix in Green Valley, Fort Worth, Tex., and at San Antonio's national race.

Starkey earned his national champ title at the American Road Race of Champions in Daytona, Fla., last year where he holds the race record for the 3.1 mile course with a lap time of 2:04 miles per hour.

The Grand Prix will have a well-balanced field, officials said, including the defending champion Homer Rader of Dallas in a modified Lotus 30.

Other formidable entries are the former Grand Prix champion Dave Morgan of Tulsa, Okla., in a Zerk Special and Le Roi Melcher Jr., of Houston, Tex., in a Lola T70.

Officials said the registrations are up to 124 cars, a record, and the quality of drivers and their racing cars is the best in the history of the race.

The weekend of racing begins at 2:30 p.m. Saturday with five midwest regional division races.

Sunday's races are for national championship points. They begin at 12:45 p.m.

Only Two Hits But Both Won Over Dodgers

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Rusty Staub, enigmatic to some people, is too painfully transparent to Ron Perranoski and the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Staub, who celebrated his 22nd birthday two weeks ago, has two hits in his fourth season in the majors, and both have had the same effect. They've beaten the Dodgers.

The Houston right fielder smashed a two-run homer against Perranoski Thursday night, climaxing a three-run, eighth-inning rally that carried the Astros past the Dodgers 4-2. His run-scoring single off Perranoski in the ninth inning the night before gave Houston a 7-6 victory.

From the time he was a 19-year-old rookie through the present, Staub has been considered a mystery by many people. They have found it difficult to understand some of his actions.

There was, for example, the night in St. Louis last August when he started home from second on a single. He raced to third and started toward home but suddenly pulled up and trotted the rest of the way to the plate where he was an easy out.

Staub simply walked to the dugout, went right past a seething Manager Luman Harris and sat down. He didn't say a word, seeing no reason to explain why he walked into the tag.

As it turned out, though, he had a good reason. In rounding third, the youngster reinjured a thigh muscle.

"I knew if I stopped at third and didn't try to score, Luman would think I couldn't run and I'd be out of the line-up," Staub explained. "So as I rounded third I felt the muscle go, and I just pulled up."

"I knew if I tried to keep running, I'd hurt it bad and might be out the rest of the season. I was already around third. I didn't know where the ball was or whether they were even trying to make a play on me, and so the only thing I saw to do was just teast on toward the plate."

In the only other National League games, Philadelphia edged St. Louis 5-4 and Chicago whipped San Francisco 9-4. In the American League, Detroit swept New York 3-2 and 5-2, Minnesota downed Kansas City 4-2 and California nipped Chicago 2-1.

Rich Allen's three-run homer capped a four-run first inning that powered Philadelphia past St. Louis. The Phillies scored what proved to be the winning run in the third when Johnny Callison singled, moved around to third on an infield out and a wild pitch and raced across as Bill White grounded out.

Ty Cline rapped five hits and drove in two runs in leading a Chicago attack that gave Leo Durocher his first victory in his new managerial job. Tight relief pitching by Bill Hands and Ted Abernathy stymied the Giants.

Canadians Land a Real Knockout

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The fighting Montreal Canadiens have landed the first knockout punch in their quest of a second consecutive Stanley Cup championship. But whether Chicago or Detroit will be their opponent in the National Hockey League's playoff final won't be determined for at least another four days.

The Canadiens knocked Toronto out of the running Thursday night, winning 4-1 for a four-game sweep in the best-of-7 competition after engaging the Maple Leafs in one of the wildest brawls in NHL history.

Detroit, led by Paul Henderson's two goals and Bryan Watson's effective shadowing of high-scoring Bobby Hull, defeated the Black Hawks 5-1 and deadlocked their best-of-7 set at two games apiece.

A record 35 penalties were handed out by referee Art Skov in the spirited game in Maple Leaf Gardens, 19 to the Leafs and 16 to the Canadiens. Seven other Cup records for penalties were shattered after a delayed penalty to Montreal defenseman Ted Harris in the fourth minute of the first period touched off the wild gang fight.

Dobbs Will Remain at T. Western

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Bobby Dobbs had been given command of the 1964 Army football team for one game by head coach Earl (Red) Blaik who was ill.

The Army tore through the Penn Quakers that fall for a 35-0 victory handing Dobbs a 1-0 record at Army. Since that game 12 years ago he has always dreamed of being West Point's head coach.

Dobbs announced Thursday at a press conference he would remain as Texas Western football coach after refusing the position that he had dreamed so much of having.

"It was tough to tell them I wasn't coming," said Dobbs. "I have had aspirations for the head coach at Army for many years."

"I had a sense of loyalty to my players here and couldn't leave them," he said. "My sense of loyalty to Texas Western and the players had a bearing on the decision."

The 43-year-old Dobbs played football under Blaik in 1943-45 and had been sounded out as a replacement for Paul Dietzel, who switched last week to take the South Carolina head football coaching position.

Murphy, Army's athletic director, met in El Paso last weekend and the two talked again at West Point, N.Y., Tuesday and Wednesday.

Baseball to Appeal Rule on Braves

By RUDI SCHIFFER
MILWAUKEE (AP) — One battle over, baseball is apparently moving toward an appeals court clash with Wisconsin in its continuing legal tug-of-war over the Braves.

"If baseball appeals, we would ask the State Supreme Court to take up the case right away," said Atty. Gen. Bronson La Follette Thursday. "We have a state statute that gives priority to cases like this."

"I suppose we would be extremely fortunate if we had a Supreme Court decision by the end of May."

Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller found baseball Wednesday in violation of Wisconsin antitrust law for allowing the transfer of the Braves from Milwaukee to Atlanta without supplying Milwaukee with a replacement team.

Roller ordered the National League to agree by May 16 to add an expansion team in Milwaukee in 1967. If baseball fails to comply, the Braves must return to Milwaukee this season, the judge said.

Warren Giles, league president, and William Bartholomay, Braves' board chairman, both said Thursday that baseball would immediately appeal the decision.

Baseball Commissioner William D. Eckert has voiced disapproval with the ruling but has offered no plan of action.

La Follette said he anticipated that baseball would appeal as soon as possible. He said an appeal must be made not later than 90 days after the judgment.

"I also expect an attempt by baseball to get a stay of execution (pending appeal) on Judge Roller's ruling," said La Follette. "We would oppose any granting of further stay."

Baseball must first seek a stay from Roller. If he rejects the plea, baseball could then ask the State Supreme Court.

If baseball should be granted a stay by Roller, the judge could set a bond sufficient to protect the state's interests during the appeal processes.

La Follette said the court could affirm the Circuit Court judgment, reverse it, or modify it. If an appeal should be rejected, baseball could look to the U.S. Supreme Court for help.

Expression Explained

One explanation of the origin of the expression "clean as a hound's tooth" is that in the West a rancher checks the teeth of a hound suspected of killing sheep. If the dog is guilty, there is wool in its teeth.

"Dog Waltz"

The first of the three waltzes in Chopin's Opus 64 has acquired the sobriquet of "Dog Waltz" because, according to legend, it was inspired by the sight of George Sand's dog chasing its own tail.

Snow Colors

Red snow and green snow have been known to fall in three sections of Yosemite National Park and a few other Arctic regions. Sometimes the snow is colored black. The colors are caused by dust and fungi which the crystals collect as they fall to earth.

Mighty, Then Minute

During spring floods, the three sections of Yosemite Falls shake the earth with the force of their 2,425-foot plunge — highest in North America. The falls are retuned to a gossamer spray in the August drought.

'Urban Renewal' a Scandal the People Reject

There is a federal slush program that goes by the name of "Urban Renewal" and which the people are angrily rejecting wherever it is put to a local vote.

For instance, it was beaten by a landslide in Fort Worth last Tuesday, 38,397 to 9,248. And it has had some classic failings here in Arkansas — at Fort Smith, for one.

I am aware that Little Rock is being used as an example of how a city may fatten itself with Urban Renewal funds — but the example only enhances Little Rock's already evil reputation of grabbing public funds at the expense of its rural neighbors.

The proponents of Urban Renewal point out that since federal tax money is available simply for the asking, we should ask for it — and that the town will benefit in the construction of new buildings to replace the old ones in a run-down district.

Of course we know where the money's coming from — from over-burdened federal taxpayers and a government that no matter how high the tax is always manages to spend more money than it collects.

We know that. But what we don't know is, who are the property owners to whom it is proposed to pay these federal funds in the scandalous name of "Urban Renewal?"

The answer to that question is something the taxpayers have a right to know. And every time the question is answered publicly the people angrily revolt and strike down the Urban Renewal program.

Fortunately in Arkansas we have the right to petition for a referendum in which all questions will be asked and will have to be answered.

If this scandal attempts to set up shop in Hope, your editor guarantees there will be both a referendum and a full public debate.

If property is run-down and unprofitable there's no law against selling it to some private interests which are willing to put their own money into rehabilitating it — but unloading it on the federal taxpayers is a political fraud against all the conscientious property owners in the land.

Indonesians Wreck China Embassy

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — More than 2,000 Indonesian Chinese wrecked the ornate Communist Chinese Embassy in Jakarta today after a huge rally demanding that Indonesia break relations with Peking.

Indonesian troops made little effort to stop the mob as it crashed a truck through the 5-foot gate in front of the fortress-like embassy, then smashed into the building.

More than 60 armed Indonesian soldiers protected about 30 embassy staff members who threw stones, bottles and chairs at the attackers, most of them Indonesian Chinese students.

Two persons, believed to be students, were injured. They were carried on stretchers to army ambulances.

Embassy staff members took refuge in another building in the compound and screamed insults as the rampaging students shattered windows in the embassy and hurled chairs, paper and doors ripped from their hinges into a bonfire in the courtyard.

While an estimated 30,000 Chinese milled around outside, the students pulled down the Red Chinese flag and hoisted Indonesia's red and white flag to half staff.

The attack on the embassy followed a rally attended by about 40,000 Indonesians of Chinese descent. The rally approved a petition demanding a break in relations with Peking. The petition also denounced Radio Peking, supported the ban on the Indonesian Communist party and declared support for national unity.

LBJ Endorses Alliance for Progress Meet

By FRANK CORMIER

MEXICO CITY (AP) — President Johnson endorsed today a proposal for him to meet with Latin-American chiefs of state to speed up the work of the Alliance for Progress.

Johnson gave a broad review of U.S. policy toward Latin America in a speech prepared for delivery at the unveiling of a statue of Abraham Lincoln in a park in Mexico City's Polanco residential section.

Referring to the summit meeting proposed by Argentine President Arturo Illia, he said:

"I will in the months ahead join with Latin-American leaders in exploring the proposal for a new meeting at the very highest level to examine our common problems and to give the Alliance for Progress increased momentum."

Although warning that "any such conference should be prepared with utmost care," Johnson added that "careful preparation need not be the enemy of imaginative action."

There has been speculation recently that the U.S. President may visit South America before the end of the summer, and a summit meeting could provide the occasion for his visit.

The Johnsons flew to Mexico City from San Antonio, Tex., Thursday through turbulent skies with a prestige-laden delegation that included Secretary of State Dean Rusk and both the Democratic and Republican leaders of the U.S. Senate.

The President's younger daughter, Luci, suffered briefly from the turbulence. She deserted the colorful airport welcome to go back inside the presidential jet for a session with her father's personal physician, Vice Adm. George G. Burkley.

She emerged in time for the motorcade and announced she felt fine again. And the crowds along the route did not fail to notice the teen-ager who is looking forward to an August wedding.

"Happy wedding" and "How's your fiancée?" some shouted.

There was hardly a sour note in the entire reception. At one point, however, a small group of youths clapped hands in unison as the procession passed and chanted, "Viet Nam is Yankee no."

Mostly the people smiled, laughed, shouted threw confetti, offered bouquets of roses and dashed into the street—often jamming it from curb to curb—in an effort to reach for Johnson's outstretched hand.

In an airport speech, Johnson said he didn't think there had ever been a time when the United States and Mexico faced fewer mutual problems, had better understanding or enjoyed a greater friendship.

"This is almost a homecoming for the Johnson family," he said. "Thirty-one years ago we came to Mexico on our honeymoon. Since then on every occasion possible we have visited in your cities and your countryside, and we have enjoyed on many occasions visits from your leaders and your presidents."

Diaz Ordaz, as president-elect, visited the LBJ Ranch in November 1964.

The Mexican chief executive said in welcoming Johnson that peoples of the two countries must leave their children as a legacy "a future without apprehension and distrust, based on true and loyal friendship that is enduring."

Diaz Ordaz said such a friendship "only blooms among free men that respect each other."

Johnson returns to his Texas ranch tonight, but Mrs. Johnson will remain in Mexico City an extra day.

Raw Hands, Raw Determination

NEW YORK (AP) — Sidney Rosenbloom is a young man with raw hands and raw determination.

The 16-year-old Brooklyn High School student, paralyzed from the waist down, propelled himself 10 miles in his wheel chair Wednesday.

The effort left his wrists and hands sore but he intends to "do 10 miles every day until I have completed 50 miles."

"I want to remind other crippled kids that they can do whatever they set their minds to," he explained.

Appalled at What People Are Saying

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (P)—Dr. Ralph Phelps, president of Ouachita Baptist University, said Thursday he was appalled that many people were saying that public office is no place for an honest man.

Phelps has been mentioned as a possible candidate for governor, and he has said he is considering the 4th District Congressional race.

It is tragic that the public has become so cynical about politics, he told a convention of the Arkansas Association of Mutual Insurance Agents.

Election or Else, Warn the Buddhists

By ROBERT POOS

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Buddhist leaders in Saigon today reaffirmed their support of the military government's plans to hold elections in three to five months and called off future demonstrations. But they threatened to send their supporters in to the streets again if the elections are not held as promised.

The all-day policy session did not discuss one of the major political issues still undecided—whether to demand the immediate resignation of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's regime or allow it to stay in office and prepare the voting. Presumably this will be discussed later.

In the North, however, a demand was made for the government to step down. It was coupled with a threat of new demonstrations.

The war against the Viet Cong remained at a near standstill with the U.S. 101st Airborne and the Marines carrying the brunt of the ground effort. However, U.S. Air Force and Navy jets smashed deep into North Viet Nam on 55 missions Thursday, hitting troop barracks, oil and munition dumps, bridges and roads.

The planes also caught several trucks near the Mu Gia Pass, an infiltration route to the South where B52s created huge landslides earlier this week.

Two U.S. B57 jet bombers collided over water near DaNang. The U.S. military announced that 306 planes had been lost over North and South Viet Nam up to last Tuesday, an increase of seven since the last report 18 days ago.

Tonight Is Deadline to File Return

WASHINGTON (AP) — Failure to file an income tax return by tonight's midnight deadline could subject a taxpayer to payment of penalties and interest on the tax he still owes the government.

The Internal Revenue Service said today that in some cases — if a taxpayer is ill, involved in an accident or out of the country, for example — an exemption can be granted permitting the late filing of a return if the taxpayer requests one.

Although this would exempt the taxpayer from paying penalties, he would still be subject to an interest charge of 6 per cent annually on any tax due beginning at midnight tonight.

The penalty for failure to file a return without such an exemption is 5 per cent monthly on the tax still owed the government up to a maximum of 25 per cent. A 6 per cent interest charge is also made.

IRS said it would be better for a taxpayer to file his return before the deadline even if he can't pay now what he still owes. In this way he might avoid the penalty and be required to pay only the 6 per cent interest charge for late payment.

Young Whale Cavorts in James River

CHARLES CITY, Va. (AP)—A young whale named Pokey continues to cavort in his James River playground, apparently none the worse in his joust with man.

After surviving a hail of bullets from a 30-30 rifle, Pokey resumed his peaceful meandering around a mud bank, some 70 miles upstream from his natural Atlantic Ocean habitat.

The question of what to do with the 3,000-pound whale remains unanswered.

His finder, fisherman Norman C. Haynes, tried to dispose of him on two occasions, but without success.

The Department of the Interior, the Army Corps of Engineers and the Coast Guard huddle today in Washington to seek a solution to the problem.

Some Virginians think he should be killed. Haynes' son, Bernard, has already tried that. Wednesday night he drilled Pokey with a dozen bullets from a 30-30 rifle. When Haynes tried to tow the "dead" whale away the next morning, Pokey thrashed around, "breaking three nylon lines like they were shoestrings."

The American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals demanded the Haynes' men be prosecuted for their actions. State officials checked Virginia statutes and said it appeared that "legally a whale is fair game for anybody."

When Pokey was discovered, he already had between 25 and 30 bullet wounds plus lacerations all over his body. In all, he has been riddled with some 40 bullets.

David Pryor Files in the 4th District

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Ouachita County Rep. David Pryor filed Thursday as a candidate for Congress in the 4th District's regular Democratic primary.

Pryor and three other Democrats have filed in the regular primary and in a special primary which has been delayed by court battles.

The others are Richard Arnold of Texarkana, Dean Murphy of Texarkana and Charles Honey of Prescott.

Pryor said the people in the 4th district apparently are not pressuring for a special primary.

"They realize that we're now too close to the regular summer primaries," Pryor, 31, said he did not believe that political leaders in the district would begin lining up behind the candidates until after the ticket closes April 27.

Would Slow Down School Guidelines

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., said Thursday he had asked the federal government to take a flexible approach in enforcement of new school desegregation guidelines.

At the same time, A. W. Ford, state education commissioner, predicted most of the state's school districts would comply with the guidelines, reluctantly.

Mills said many school officials in Arkansas had complained about the guidelines. "They tell me that they are being required to go faster than they think they can go," he said.

Ford said most complaints are about requirements for a sizable percentage jump in desegregation figures, and faculty desegregation.

Turkish Novelist Charged as Red

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — Turkish novelist Orhan Kemal and two others charged with Communist activities have been released after more than a month in jail.

U.S. Abandons Plan to Dam Buffalo River

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Army Engineers have changed their mind and withdrawn a recommendation that the Buffalo River be dammed at Gilbert, Gov. Orval Faubus said today.

Faubus recently issued a statement saying he favored keeping the North Arkansas river in its natural state. He said today the engineers were acceding to his request.

William Cassidy, chief of engineers, told Faubus by letter that the Corps had noted plans of the National Park Service to preserve the Buffalo as a national river.

Cassidy said engineers were also recommending that the authorized Lone Rock project on the river not be completed.

Faubus said it was possible for Congress to override the recommendation of Army Engineers and vote to construct the dam, but this usually was not done.

"Judging from past action in cases such as this, the matter is probably concluded," he said.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Winston Chandler, declaring that he was tired of the same tired faces in politics, filed today as a Democratic candidate for governor.

The 46-year-old owner of a Little Rock trucking firm became the fourth candidate in the Democratic field. He joined former U.S. Rep. Brooks Hays, former Justice Jim Johnson and state Rep. Kenneth Sulcer.

Chandler paid his $1,500 filing fee in cash, mostly $20 bills, which he said was raised by friends in the southwest area of Pulaski County and Van Buren County.

He issued a brief statement, the briefest of any yet issued by anyone filing for governor this year. It said:

"The people of Arkansas deserve a candidate who represents all the people, not just radical pressure groups. They deserve a chance to elect a man who will obey the dictates of the people, not politicians in Washington or New York, one who can consolidate Democratic forces."

In other filings:

Truck Hits a Train at McNab and Driver Dies

Samuel E. Immon, 37, of Arp, Texas was fatally injured about 4:35 a.m. today when he drove a loaded feed truck into a Frisco Railway Freight train at the McNab, Ark. Crossing.

Immon was rushed to a Texarkana hospital where he was pronounced dead at 8:15 a.m.

Arkansas State Policeman Leon Stokes said the feed truck, traveling north on Highway 355, ploughed into the train, derailing seven boxcars. He said the trailer of the truck went completely through the train. Stokes said the accident occurred in a very heavy fog and the truck driver apparently didn't see the train moving over the crossing.

Traffic has been restored on Highway 355 although several tons of feed is scattered over the highway.

Reactions to Hays' Campaign

LITTLE ROCK (P) — Foes and could-be foes of Brooks Hays expressed a variety of reactions when the former congressman entered the Democratic governor's race Thursday.

Former Justice Jim Johnson welcomed Hays; State Rep. Kenneth Sulcer took critical aim at Hays' connections with the federal government, and Dr. Dale Alford said "why?"

Alford—who unlike Johnson, Hays and Sulcer—has not filed, said he was quite surprised that Hays had entered the race after having lost four times in bids for major elective office.

"Since it is well known that he is retired and on a very liberal lifetime government pension," Alford said, "his announcement is quite surprising."

Johnson said Hays' entry affords the voters another choice, and therefore the action is welcome.
